

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY™

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Tenure Track Management Position—Assistant/Associate Professor

The Department of Management and Information Systems in the College of Business at Mississippi State University invites applications for an Assistant/Associate Tenure-Track position in Management with a focus on Entrepreneurship/Strategy to start in August of 2024. Responsibilities include scholarly research, teaching, and service. Research expectations are consistent with those of an AACSB-accredited, doctoral-degree granting college of business, and summer research funding is often available. A typical teaching load is two courses per semester. Candidates will be expected to teach courses such as Entrepreneurship and/or Strategic Management at the graduate and undergraduate levels and/or Principles of Management at the undergraduate level. Finally, candidates should have a commitment to appropriate levels of service within the department, college, and university.

Appointment Date: August 2024

Requirements and Preferred Qualifications

Candidates must have a PhD in Management, a closely related field, or be ABD with convincing evidence they will complete their program before the August 2024 start date. Preferably, candidates will have demonstrated the ability to do research that leads to publications in top management journals and the ability to teach Entrepreneurship, Strategic Management, and/or Principles of Management.

Our Department

Most departments say they are collegial, but we truly are, as evidenced by multiple faculty research collaborations, broad commitment to PhD students, and a close-knit, work-at-the-office culture. We offer an undergraduate major, PhD program in management, and also support the full-time and on-line MBA programs. All degree programs are fully accredited by the AACSB, and our Department is ranked 6th in the world in Family Business and Entrepreneurship research. Our success in the area of family business and entrepreneurship is a consequence of an ability to blend the diverse skills of faculty from multiple fields in management into an integrated team. The Family Business Education Initiative (<https://www.business.msstate.edu/faculty-research/research-centers/family-business-education-initiative>) is housed in the Department, and MSU's Center for Entrepreneurship and Outreach (<https://ecenter.msstate.edu/>) is housed in the College of Business.

Mississippi State University, City of Starkville, and Golden Triangle Region

Founded in 1878, Mississippi State University (www.msstate.edu) provides a rich heritage and state-of-the-art instructional and research technologies. Located in northeast Mississippi's Golden Triangle Region (featured on 60 Minutes for its manufacturing boom), Starkville provides a college-town living experience. The university campus is one of the most charming in the southeastern United States and boasts numerous architectural and cultural attractions, including the Ulysses S. Grant Presidential Library. Mississippi State University is one of only 17 land-grant, sea-grant, and space-grant public institutions in the country with over 1,300 faculty and nearly 22,000 students. It is also a member of the prestigious Southeastern Conference (SEC).
