

2019 Spring Newsletter

Written by Hovig Tchalian

Sunday, 28 April 2019 22:17 - Last Updated Monday, 29 April 2019 14:13

Everyone,

Please enjoy our 2019 Spring Newsletter, packed with updates and announcements.

Chair's Message – Davide Ravasi, University College London, introduces this issue of the OMT Division newsletter and looks ahead to the upcoming Annual Meeting in Boston.

Program Chair Renate Meyer shares an overview of our scholarly program .

PDW Chair Martin Kilduff previews the pre-conference programs .

Research Committee Chair Lori Yue announces our paper and symposium award winners for this year.

Other Conference Activities

Follow these links for details of the Doctoral Consortium , Junior Faculty Consortium , or Dissertation Proposal Workshop , and consider applying to our second annual Doing Organizational Research Around the World – Opportunities and Challenges Workshop

2019 Spring Newsletter

Written by Hovig Tchalian

Sunday, 28 April 2019 22:17 - Last Updated Monday, 29 April 2019 14:13

Be sure to check out our growing list of incredibly popular OMT off-program events , and please attend our Monday morning Distinguished Scholar Breakfast to congratulate Lynne Zucker and hear her award talk.

We continue to strengthen our partnership with EGOS. In addition to our Meet OMT @ EGOS Reception (in Edinburgh), we will be co-hosting our Meet EGOS @ OMT Reception (in Boston).

In Closing

A special thanks to our Sponsors . For future sponsorship information, contact Davide Ravasi, OMT Division Chair.

Please remember to like us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter .